

Blow, bugles of battle, the marches of peace:
East, west, north and south let the long quarrel
cease,
Sing the song of great joy that the Angels began,
Sing of glory to God and of good-will to man!

UNLAWFUL KILLING OF DEER

MANY WAYS IN WHICH THE POOR SPORT EXHIBITS HIMSELF

There should be an organization to weed out poor sports and preserve good hunting.

With the closing of the deer season comes reports from all along the mountains from one end of the county to the other of a great mass of poor sportsmanship. For many years Adams county has afforded a paradise for deer hunting and every year sees the killing of bucks running from one to two hundred, but this year is the first season in which three hundred bucks were taken out of our hills.

It would be all right if these bucks were taken by those who in every way were entitled to be known as good sports, for a good sport is one who observes the law and protects the game, which is giving pleasure and an outing to thousands of hunters, but a certain portion of the killing belongs to those who are not good sports and are not law abiding and break laws and regulations to get a deer and sometimes they do not care whether it is a buck or a doe, only in latter case a certain amount of cleverness must be exercised to escape the penalty of the law.

It is said that there are gangs of hunters who have more than one camp, and miles apart, and if one of these camps must be closed because the limit of six bucks have been killed, that the other camp will then be taken up. It is said that there are hunters in camps who, when their camp have killed the limit will go on a visit to another camp, and instead of going home, will take part in a drive at the visiting camp.

It is said that any number of does have been found and there are hunters who will carry off the best meat of a doe and leave the hide and head, that they can not be identified as the owner of a doe's hide. The hunter who kills a doe in mistake, and honestly confesses to a game warden his error, and pays the price, is said to be a rare bird.

The remark has been heard that there are individuals who will shoot any time of the year, when carrying a gun, and one comes in sight.

This condition suggests to those who are good sports that there should be an organization of all the clubs and camps in the mountains. Some enthusiast should try to get together representatives from all the camps and take steps to form an organization to eliminate the poor sports, those who would destroy deer hunting in a season if they could. No camp should tolerate a member who is a poor sport. Visitors from camps where they have had their full kill should not be allowed, and poor sports who do such things should be told to move on. If all the clubs and camps should agree to report the irregular hunters to the game warden Adams county could be preserved for many years, and the annual outing in winter, a good healthy experience, be enjoyed for years to come.

SHORT SESSION OF COURT.

Helen Geiselman in Court and Sentence Suspended.

At a brief session of the court on last Friday the following business was disposed of:

In the case of the Commonwealth vs. Helen Geiselman, charged with concealing the death of a bastard child, the defendant appeared in court and pleaded guilty and the court suspended sentence, and the record in this case is completed.

The Citizens' Trust Company, guardian of Mabel G. Wolf, was given authority to pay out of money coming into their hands under workman's compensation law the sum of $15 for the maintenance of ward until 16 years of age. She is the only child of the man killed at the narrow bridge on Lincoln Highway east of town when he fell from his wagon while asleep and whose wife died several months later.

John Wible was appointed auditor of Cumberland township to fill the vacancy caused by failure to elect.

The widow's lists under Saco law in estates of Joseph L. Hemler, late of McSherrystown, and of Howard A. Clark, late of Liberty township were confirmed absolute.

Emory Fissel was appointed guardian of Calvin L. Fissel, bond in Saco.

Hotels Ask License.

It is expected that Adams county will have the same number of liquor license applications for 1923 as in other years. Five have already been filed: City Hotel and Hotel Gettysburg in this place, Joseph H. Krug and New Ocker Hotel, Littlestown, and George Grove, of New Oxford. The Eagle Hotel, Gettysburg, did not file an application this year. The five are the same as last year. The auditor general's department report for the year 1922 that Adams county paid $292,700 liquor license tax. Twenty-seven counties paid no liquor license taxes to the State, while the other counties paid various amounts, that from Adams being among the smallest.

YORK SPRINGS MAN DIES

FAITHFUL DOG DIES THREE DAYS LATER FROM GRIEF.

Man Died Over Twenty Miles Away from Home and Dog Was Not Near Him at Death.

William Baughman, who has been living in York Springs for the past eight months, died on Wednesday of last week at Harrisburg from tubercular trouble, aged about 30 years. The funeral was on last Sunday, services and interment were at Dillsburg. He leaves a wife and little daughter.

With his death is associated a most unusual occurrence. He owned a spotted French coach dog and was a constant companion of the man. When Mr. Baughman went away at times the dog would remain contented until his return. But on Wednesday when Mr. Baughman died in Harrisburg, the dog was in charge of Mrs. Leander Myers in York Springs, and from Wednesday evening on until its death on Saturday, the dog refused to eat and walked around whining and crying and died from grief.

Our Wealthy Hens.

According to Bureau of Statistics, Pennsylvania Department of Agriculture, the hens on the Adams Co. farms laid during the year 1922 a million dollars worth of eggs, or the exact figures are that there was produced in Adams county 2,223,117 dozens of eggs which sold at an average price of 48 cents, and the total value was $1,067,412.00. There were only eight counties in the State in the million dollar class, and Adams was seventh in that class.

Narrow Escape from Asphyxiation.

Miss Mary Pearson, of York Springs, had a very narrow escape from being asphyxiated from coal gas last Thursday evening. She lives alone at the old Pearson residence, next to her brother, Associate Judge H. B. Pearson. Noticing there was no signs of life about the house he placed a ladder up to a window of her bedroom and called to her. She replied that she would get up. Waiting another half hour and not seeing signs of her having arisen Judge Pearson again reached her bedroom window by ladder and called, but this time there came no reply. Entrance was forced into the house, which was found filled with coal gas, and the lady was discovered to be unconscious. Dr. Cashman was summoned and it was only with the greatest difficulty that she was aroused. During the remainder of the day a constant watch had to be kept that she did not relapse into slumber. The fact that her bedroom window had been raised a few inches by her when she retired, helped to save her life.

MARRIAGES.

—Brown — Robert. — Miss Louise Elizabeth Robert, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Robert, of Union township, and Ernest Milton Brown, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wherley Brown, of Conewago township, were united in marriage Tuesday morning at 9 o'clock at St. Paul's Lutheran Church parsonage, Littlestown, by Rev. H. C. Bergrasser. The ring ceremony of the Lutheran Church was used. Following the ceremony a wedding dinner was served at the home of the bride. The young couple will reside at the home of the groom's parents.

A Private Sale of Property.

Last week the sale of the Kimple property on Baltimore street to Miss Anna Hollebaugh was noted, and terms were said to be private. By way of the "Hanover Record" it appears that John E. Kimple paid $800 for the property and that the price paid by Miss Hollebaugh was nearly double the original purchase figure.

McSparran Still Heads Grange.

At a meeting of the Pennsylvania State Grange at Williamsport, Pa., last week, John A. McSparran, the Democratic candidate for Governor, was nominated again as Master of the State Grange, a position he has held for the past eight years.

A SEMINARY JOKELET

A MERGER TALKED ABOUT BY ONE INSTITUTION

While the Institution to be Swallowed Up Out of Existence Smiles.

In the Philadelphia city papers this week was found propaganda like the following, that negotiations are in progress for the merger of Pennsylvania's three Lutheran Theological Seminaries—the big institution at Mt. Airy, the Gettysburg Seminary, and the school at Selinsgrove. The meaning of such a proposed merger appears later on, where the propaganda is baited with plans for a new building costing upwards of $500,000, and it added that should the trustees at Gettysburg and Selinsgrove vote in favor of the merger, and agree to come to Philadelphia, the building program will be pushed to completion.

The propaganda is not the consensus of opinion of men affiliated with the three institutions, but is the effort of Mr. Arty for the other two to permit themselves to be swallowed up. The opinion is ventured that there is no single man connected with the Seminary here who will say he is in favor of the proposition. So far as we have been able to get any expression there is no in favor of it here.

The propaganda states that there are clever Lutheran theological schools in the country, but it is not sought to unite them all in one big university, but a merger is suggested by the one claiming the largest enrollment as willing to take under its wing the other two, Gettysburg and Selinsgrove.

Of course it is natural for another institution to want something that looks good and the Seminary here must look good to those on the outside. The Seminary here is financially the strongest institution in this place from a comparative point of view. Its real estate could not be sold today for a quarter million of dollars, and its endowment funds are over the four hundred thousand dollar mark. The Seminary represents a capitalization of nearly three-quarters of a million and this rich plum is supposed to be baited by plans of buildings to cost $500,000. No wonder the Gettysburg people smile, wonder the Gettysburg people smile. To those representing the oldest purely theological Lutheran institution in America, with its traditions and prestige, there is only one position, and that is being true to their trust and giving the indulgence of a smile to all other propaganda.

Who Pays the Bridge Repairs?

When it has been decided who is responsible for the repairs to the large covered bridge across Little Conewago Creek in Union township on road from Hanover to Littlestown it is said the same will be made. It appears the bridge was originally built by Adams county many years ago. Then the turnpike company took it over when it was formed and the pike from Littlestown to Hanover was built. Four or five years ago the State Highway Department bought the pike from the company and it is up to the Highway Department to make the repairs. It is said both County Commissioners and Highway Department are willing to make the necessary repairs, if the responsibility so to do belongs to them. The attorney general will be asked to advise the Highway Department.

Adams Spent $88,000 for Good Roads.

Adams county is one of thirty-two counties in the State that assisted the Sproul administration in building improved highway systems by borrowing money during the last four years, according to figures on file at the State Highway Department offices, Harrisburg. Since 1918 Adams county commissioners have borrowed $88,000 to build better roads, the statistics show. Thirty-two counties in Pennsylvania have borrowed a total of $36,144,423 within the period of the Sproul administration.

Why Buy Oil Stock?

You can buy an interest in a lease and drilling well for $25.00, or 4 interests in 4 wells on separate leases for $100.00. All these leases are adjacent to or join producing wells. According to the law of averages in these fields, three out of four wells should be producers. Under this plan, a 20 barrel well will pay $9.90 per month on each $25 interest, or a 100 barrel well will pay $49.50 per month on each $25 interest. You will receive your proportionate share of money from the sale of oil regularly each month. Send your check to-day for one or more interests and if you are dissatisfied within ten days after receiving full particulars, I guarantee to return your money. Quick action is necessary, as the number of interests unsold is limited. Make all checks and inquiries to JOS. F. STEVENS, Trustee, 740 Land Title Building, Philadelphia, Pa.

THE TRUE CHRISTMAS SPIRIT

Period of Good Will and Kindly Thought for Others, Most Important on Calendar.

THAT if, as a Scrooge-like cynic intimates, the Christmas spirit comes to us but once a year, not even he will attempt to assert that we are not the better for it. Think what it would mean if that period of good will and kindly thought for others were dropped from our calendar. No blessed interruption to our too generally self-centered lives; no yearly oasis of brotherly sentiment to purge us, however temporarily, of selfishness and cause us, if only for a few days to think of making others happy.

Pre-eminently the children's festival, as of right it should be since it commemorates the nativity of the Christ Child, it transforms us all, whatever our years, into children of larger growth. We experience anew the glad expectancy of childhood, the thrill that far surpasses any realization, and find our greatest pleasure in the simple childish emotions of love and joy.

And this is the noblest Christmas gift, the gift of the true Christmas spirit that captures and takes possession of each one of us. "Except ye be converted and become as little children ye shall not enter into the kingdom of heaven."—Pittsburgh Dispatch.

PEACOCK PIE FOR CHRISTMAS

Gaily Plumed Bird Formerly One of the Principal Delicacies at Yuletide Feasts.

HICKEN pie, beefsteak pie, and pumpkin pie, not forgetting apple pie and cheese, the great American Institution—all of these have a familiar ring to our ears, but who of us has ever tasted the famous English dainty of dainties, peacock pie? Yet at one time, this was a favorite Christmas dish which was brought in with a great deal of ceremony by the lady, most distinguished in all the company for beauty and high position. Many times this dish was garnished with the head and tail of the peacock in such a way as to appear that the bird was alive. Knights made vows over it to break spear in defense of beauty and distress. It was this ceremony which gave rise to the once popular oath "by cock and pie."

Probably the use of the peacock pie as a Christmas dish arose from the old belief that the flesh of the peacock is incorruptible which of course would make it a symbol of immortality and new life.

To the people of today the peacock is a symbol of vanity.

SOME OLD YULETIDE BELIEFS

Season Supposed to Control the Destiny of Children Born at Gladsome Time.

AN OLD superstition says that it is lucky to be born on Christmas Day.

French peasants believe that in addition to being lucky Christmas Day babies have the gift of prophecy; while in Silesia there is a belief that a boy born on Christmas Day will become either a lawyer or a thief.

Among Vosges peasants, children born on Christmas Eve are supposed to be endowed with what is vulgarly termed "a good gift of the gab," while those born on Christmas Day are supposed to have less tongue and better reasoning powers. A daughter born on Christmas Day will grow up to be wise, witty, and virtuous.

A curious bequest for the benefit of Christmas Day babies was left by a man who died in 1915. By the terms of his will each child born in the testator's native town on December 25th receives five pounds as a birthday gift.

Sad and Solemn Thoughts.

"Even at Christmas, when all the world is gay and glad," said the grey-bearded philosopher, "there come to a man sad and solemn thoughts." "Yes," agreed the young man who had no watch on the end of his chain, "and the saddest and most solemn are those that come to a fellow when he reads of the marriage of a girl to whom last Christmas he gave a diamond ring on which he is still paying installments."

Christmas Weather.

For Christmas the weather should be of that Pickwickian kind in which the grass is "crisp and frosty," the air has a "fine, dry, bracing coldness," and the day is one "that might induce a couple of elderly gentlemen in a lonely field to take off their greatcoats and play at leapfrog in pure tightness of heart and gaiety."—Youth's Companion.

Catarhal Deafness Cannot Be Cured

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure catarhal deafness, and that is by a constitutional remedy. Catarhal Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, Deafness is the result. Unless the inflammation can be reduced and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever. Many cases of Deafness are caused by catarrh, which is an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces. Hall's Catarrh Medicine acts thru the blood on the mucous surfaces of the system.

His First Christmas Tree

The Holiday Spirit

(©. 1922. Western Newspaper Union.)

CAN there be anyone who does not polish up his holiday spirit by reading Dickens' "Christmas Carol"? Is there anyone who does not give himself the fun of skimming down the shiver with Bob Cratchit and laughing at his comforter, "three yards long, exclusive of the fringe," stream out behind him like the woolly tail of a kite? Is there anyone who does not creep up the cold staircase with Old Scrooge and shiver into his dismal room, there to eat a small and lonely bowl of porridge with the crusty old gentleman? Is there anyone who does not love Tiny Tim and his wee, brave crutch? And Mrs. Cratchit, who can cook a goose to beat anything thus far accomplished in the history of mankind? And then, when we follow the Spirit of Christmas Past, can anyone fail to be moved by the forlorn little figure of Old Scrooge as a lad, left in loneliness at school during the holidays? Could anything be more pathetic?

Has anyone such astounding control of his feet that he can prevent them from dancing at Mr. Fezziwig's party? And where is the impossible person who can suppress a cheer at that remarkable gentleman's performance with his legs? "If such there be, go, mark him well," for he has no pleasant places in his heart for these delightful humors.

And then the damsel with the "lace tucker"! Dear me, what a cnase she gave one interested young man in Blind Man's Buff! And how he paid her up for it in a certain shadowy corner of the room; how he did, indeed! But she liked it. Oh, yes, she liked it very much indeed, did the damsel with the lace tucker!

Then to return to the Cratchit family, who is there to resist the simple toast of Tiny Tim, a toast of five words that encompasses the hope of all men:

"GOD BLESS US, EVERY ONE!"

Raisin Macaroon Ice Cream.
One quart cream, 1 cupful macarons (1 doz.), ½ cupful sugar, ¾ cupful finely chopped raisins, 1 teaspoonful vanilla.

Heat cream in double boiler. Add macarons in oven and roll. Dry macarons raisins and sugar to the cream. Flavor and chill. Freeze.

Explanation of Dreams.
Numerous forms of fever are announced by dreams of an uncommonly terrifying character; while in cases of severe neuralgia and rheumatic affections, disturbed dreams are occasionally found to be forerunners of an attack.

Indigestion gives rise to very morbid dreams, into which weeping, sorrow, deaths, funerals, suffocation, and strange animals enter.

All these things are due to the curious effect which the mind has over the body during periods of sleep, for dreaming is a very natural thing, and those who never dream at all are said to be mentally afflicted.

CHRISTMAS LETTERS

SOMETIMES a letter means more than all the cards and gifts in the world. Why not send a Christmas message by letter this year? A bright holiday seal stuck at the top will introduce your remarks in a jolly fashion, and then you may continue with whatever you think friendly and suitable. This is a cheap method in the actual expenditure of money, but a rich outlay of thought for those you love. Have you not discovered that something somebody does just for you is more precious than a present bought in a hurry? Christmas letters bring great joy. Try some and see!

The Piper in the Subway

By Christopher C. Hazard

(©. 1922. Western Newspaper Union.)

THERE is a contrast to the holiday atmosphere as one passes into the dark and damp underground way out of the great depot. A chill strikes upon the soul as well as upon the body. The passer hurries on to escape into the light and cheer of the street. He hugs his Christmas packages a little closer and tries to whistle himself into something like gaiety.

Suddenly he is startled and helped by the tones of a merry tune and discovers the old blind man who has long haunted the dismal place. For years this unfortunate has made it his one business to stand there and pipe up the failing spirits of travelers. His face has refused the marks of darkness and his soul has kept gladness behind its closed and curtained windows. As one stops to leave a token and a word of appreciation with him he says, "Thank you; I don't know as I ever did anybody any good; some people don't like it."

SURE ENOUGH.

Jimmie: Sister says she expects a handsome present from you Christmas.
Cholly: Hand-some? Maybe she means me.

A HARD JOB.

For little children in a flat. Drawbacks are growing greater. For how can Santa with his pack crawl through a radiator?

THAT DULL ACHING.

Don't worry and complain about a bad back. Get rid of it! For weak kidneys, lame and aching backs, your neighbors recommend Doan's Kidney Pills. Ask your neighbor. Read this statement:

Mrs. Chas. Kappes, 229 N. Stratton St., Gettysburg, says: "Doan's Kidney Pills have always given me the very best of results. Three years ago I was feeling quite badly with kidney trouble. There was a dull heavy pain in the small of my back that gave me no end of trouble. These pains lay in my back and never let up during the day. In the morning when I got up I felt stiff and sore and this made it hard for me to get around. Dizziness came on very often and tiny spots blurred my vision. My kidneys were weak and as I had known of Doan's Kidney Pills for a long time I decided to try them. I got some from the People's Drug Store and they rid me of the backaches and did away with the other signs of kidney trouble."

A Page of Suggestions for the Gift Shopper

Time is getting short now. There is none to be wasted just wondering what to give. That is why we have tried to cram this page full of suggestions, gifts for every age, gifts both large and small, gifts unusual. And the convenience of this printed page is but a reflection of the store itself where everything has been done in the way of displaying gift merchandise and inaugurating personal service features to make your Christmas shopping a pleasure and a success.

JEWELRY NOVELTIES—THE FRIEND TO FRIEND GIFT.

Something more than just a card and something less than the usual gift. That is how you want to remember a good many friends isn't it, and for such gifts Jewelry Novelties just about solve the difficulty. Dangle dangles of every sort are very fashionable—it is part of the oriental trend in costumes.

EAR-RINGS, NECKLACES, PINS. NOVELTY COMBS.

Choose two or three extra trinkets. Then if you do happen to think of some one at the very last minute you won't have to make a trip down town.

OUT-OF-DOOR FOLKS WILL LIKE GIFTS OF WOOL.

There are such jolly Knitted Wear gifts, the outdoor delight of skaters, hikers, good fellows generally, because they are so cozy and warm, good to look at. The college girl will like gifts of Knitted Wear. They have the careless air of sophistication she likes to affect. The recipient won't have to wait to wear them. She can don them for holiday jollities.

Wool Gauntlets that turn a wide cuff to winds that want to swoop up your sleeves are attractive.

Scarf and Hat Sets are dandy. A comfy scarf to tuck under your chin, a hat that's jaunty no matter how it's jammed on.

Sport Hose of soft English wool. Smartly rakish ones. Others are in plain colors clocked.

SILKS.

A Silk Dress Pattern cut from any of the lustrous pieces we are showing and put into an attractive Christmas box will make a gift that will last for a long time and the memory of the giver will live with it.

SILK CREPES OF ALL KINDS. SATINS AND TAFFETAS—OTHER ARTISTIC WEAVES.

For the Kiddies

It won't be Christmas without them, so you see they should really be more "gifted" than anyone else. Even though baby won't be able to make out what it's all about, his mother will greatly appreciate your thoughtful remembrance. Dresses, Bonnets, Pillows, are just suggestions.

DAINTY GIFTS OF KNITTED WEAR.

They are so cozy and warm, and that is just what babies need. Jacket and cap sets in pink or blue, and beautiful carriage robes. Even dolls and rattles are here in beautiful selections.

FATHER MIGHT GIVE HIS LITTLE GIRL A NEW WINTER COAT.

A snug Coat is the sensible sort of gift that most fathers enjoy giving. Of course mother will doubtless have to do the actual choosing. That will be easy though when she has this very attractive group to choose from. When little girls are given a coat, something they must have. Christmas or no Christmas, as a gift, it should be extra nice, have a fur collar, a pretty lining or be embroidered; and so only the very prettiest Coats were thought good enough for this display.

For the Men

We are ready to serve you with things that men want and will enjoy getting. You will find that men are not hard to buy for when you look over our splendid stock of things especially for them. We have the intimate gift for relatives and friends as well as the less personal gifts for those you do not know so well.

SWEATERS AND HOUSE COATS.

There is nothing you can give a man that he will enjoy as much as a sweater or house coat. The one he likes for out of door work or play and motoring and then for his leisure hours at home with a good Havana he wants a comfortable house coat. We have grand stocks of both.

OTHER GIFTS SUITABLE FOR MEN.

Hosiery, Shirts, Ties, Handkerchiefs, can a man have too many of any of these? He most certainly cannot so for Bob or Bill a gift selected from our large stock of these important things will be most pleasing as well as practical. Gloves, Scarfs, Underwear, are a few more ideas from this department.

PAJAMAS AND NIGHT SHIRTS.

Perhaps a trifle too intimate for just a male acquaintance but how about the family. The men of your family will be pleased to receive either pajamas or night shirts in the light weight materials or the cozy outing flannel.

MANY A GIFT SUGGESTION LURKS IN THE SILK FOLDS OF LINGERIE.

The silk roses that flower the front of a Frenchy Chemise suggest that you give it to Jane who is to be married before long. She'd love it for her hope chest.

The tailored undies without lace frills would be just the thing for Ann away at college where laundry isn't very carefully handled. A dainty Camisole or fancy Brassier makes a nice gift for intimate girl friends and needn't cost a great deal.

NAINSOOK AND BATISTE.

Gowns, Corset Covers, and Bloomers in a large assortment of styles and prices. Lace trimmed and embroidered they are just as sweet as they can be.

PHILIPPINE.

The dainty handwork on these garments makes them most attractive. A gown or Teddy selected from these would make a most beautiful gift.

SILK.

Luxurious silk undies make a strong appeal to the young girl or matron. We have lovely silk Gowns, Teddies, Vests, Camisoles, etc.

GIFT HOSIERY YOU'LL LIKE—THEY'LL LIKE.

If Janet tells you just before Christmas of some very smart Wool Hose she saw while shopping and Jane complains that her Silk Hose are just about gone, you'll know that they're dropping gentle hints. Janet and Jane are in the family so they can do it gracefully, but there are others—friends, girls out of town, aunts and cousins who would be just as delighted as Jane and Janet with a gift of Hosiery.

A HOMEY SORT OF GIFT—A BATHROBE.

You think of mother first. Has she a warm Eider-down Robe to slip into these cold mornings when she comes in to call you, or one that she can feel quite cozy in when she is tired at night? They're very pretty bound in silk. As reasonable as $6.00.

Corduroy Robes in blue, rose and purple are a splendid gift for the girl away from home: she will enjoy it in her room at night when she sits down to read or write.

Kimonos. Hand Embroidered Japanese style, will satisfy the yearning every woman has for comfort during her leisure hours. Nice for traveling too, and very attractive.
